(Enacted, Ordinance No. 88, April 3, 2008)

(H) If an impounded animal is suspected or known to have vicious or dangerous propensities, or accused of being a nuisance animal, it shall not be released or redeemed unless, or until, a hearing is held before the City Court to determine under what conditions, if any, such animal will be released or redeemed. (Enacted, Ordinance No. 88, April 3, 2008)

(I) To reclaim or redeem any animal impounded on the belief that the animal is repeatedly at large, or is a nuisance, the owner must petition the City Court for a hearing to determine under what conditions, if any, such animal shall be released or redeemed. During the hearing, the Court will hear evidence to determine whether the animal should be declared a nuisance animal. If the determination is made that the animal is repeatedly at large, or otherwise a nuisance, the owner will be ordered to comply with provisions or conditions made by the Court, including, but not limited to, ordered confinement of the animal in a secure enclosure. If the owner does not file such a petition within four days of the impound, the animal will become the property of the Town and subject to disposal by a licensed veterinarian. The cost of impoundment and associated costs, including costs of destruction, shall be the expense of the owner. (Enacted, Ordinance No. 88, April 3, 2008)

(J) The owner, person, or Town resident shall be assessed a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for the first violation; One-Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150.00) for the second violation; and, Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($350.00) for the third violation. A person violating this Section upon the third notice has committed the offense of maintaining a public nuisance and the dog will be impounded, and it shall not be released or redeemed unless, or until, a hearing is held before the City Court to determine under what conditions, if any, such animal will be released or redeemed.
